'Epilepsy at the Turning Point'

A Millennium Conference

Birmingham University, UK

The British Branch of the International League Against Epilepsy (President Dr Tim Betts) is pleased to announce its annual Scientific Meeting for 1999. This 3-day meeting will embrace a historical review of epilepsy knowledge and practice over the last 1000 years, an appraisal of the present state of the art judicious speculation on developments in epilepsy care in the immediate and far future. The Millennium Gowers Prizes will be awarded at the conference and there will be a special section for Medical Students and trainee Health Professionals (with whom the future of epilepsy care will rest).

There will be a scientific programme but we welcome abstracts for platform and poster presentations. (Closing date for abstracts 31 December, 1998). Numbers are limited, so early registration is recommended.
